A special thanks to Bob Hudson for all of the help he gave us in developing many of our pictures.

Dedication

"I can't remember my locker combination!"

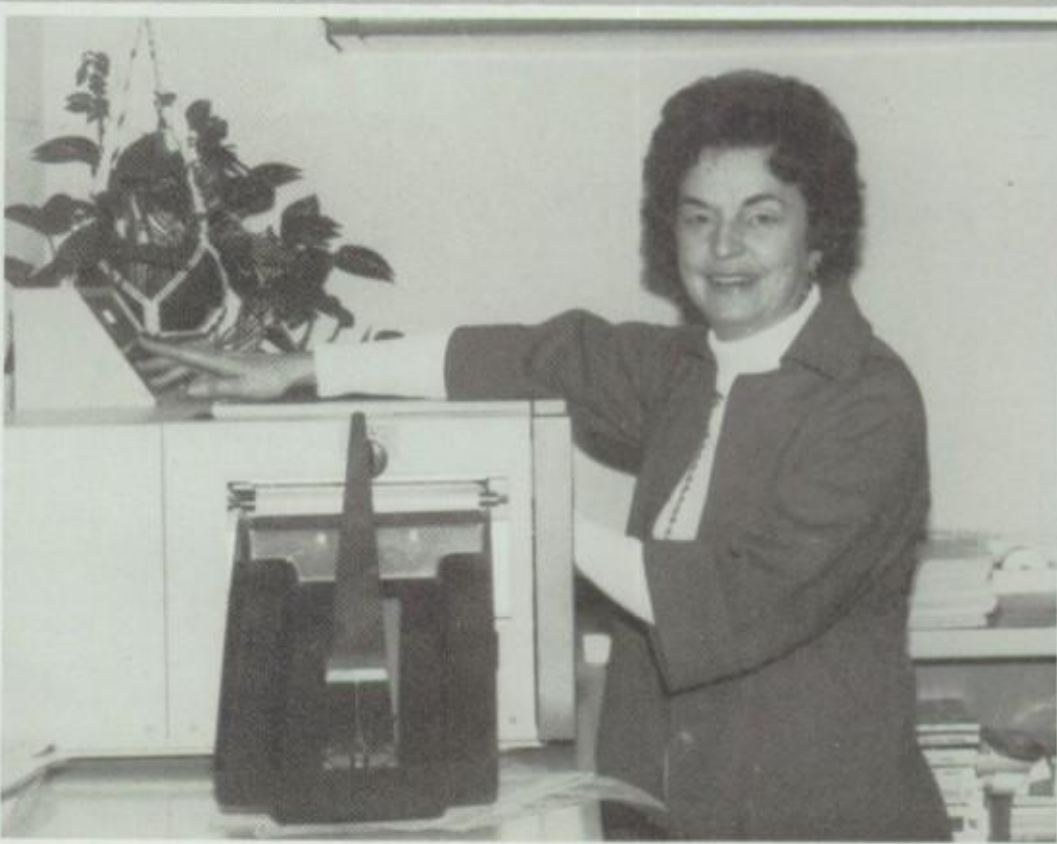

"Do we have enough money to pay for this?"

"Please type this memo and distribute it."

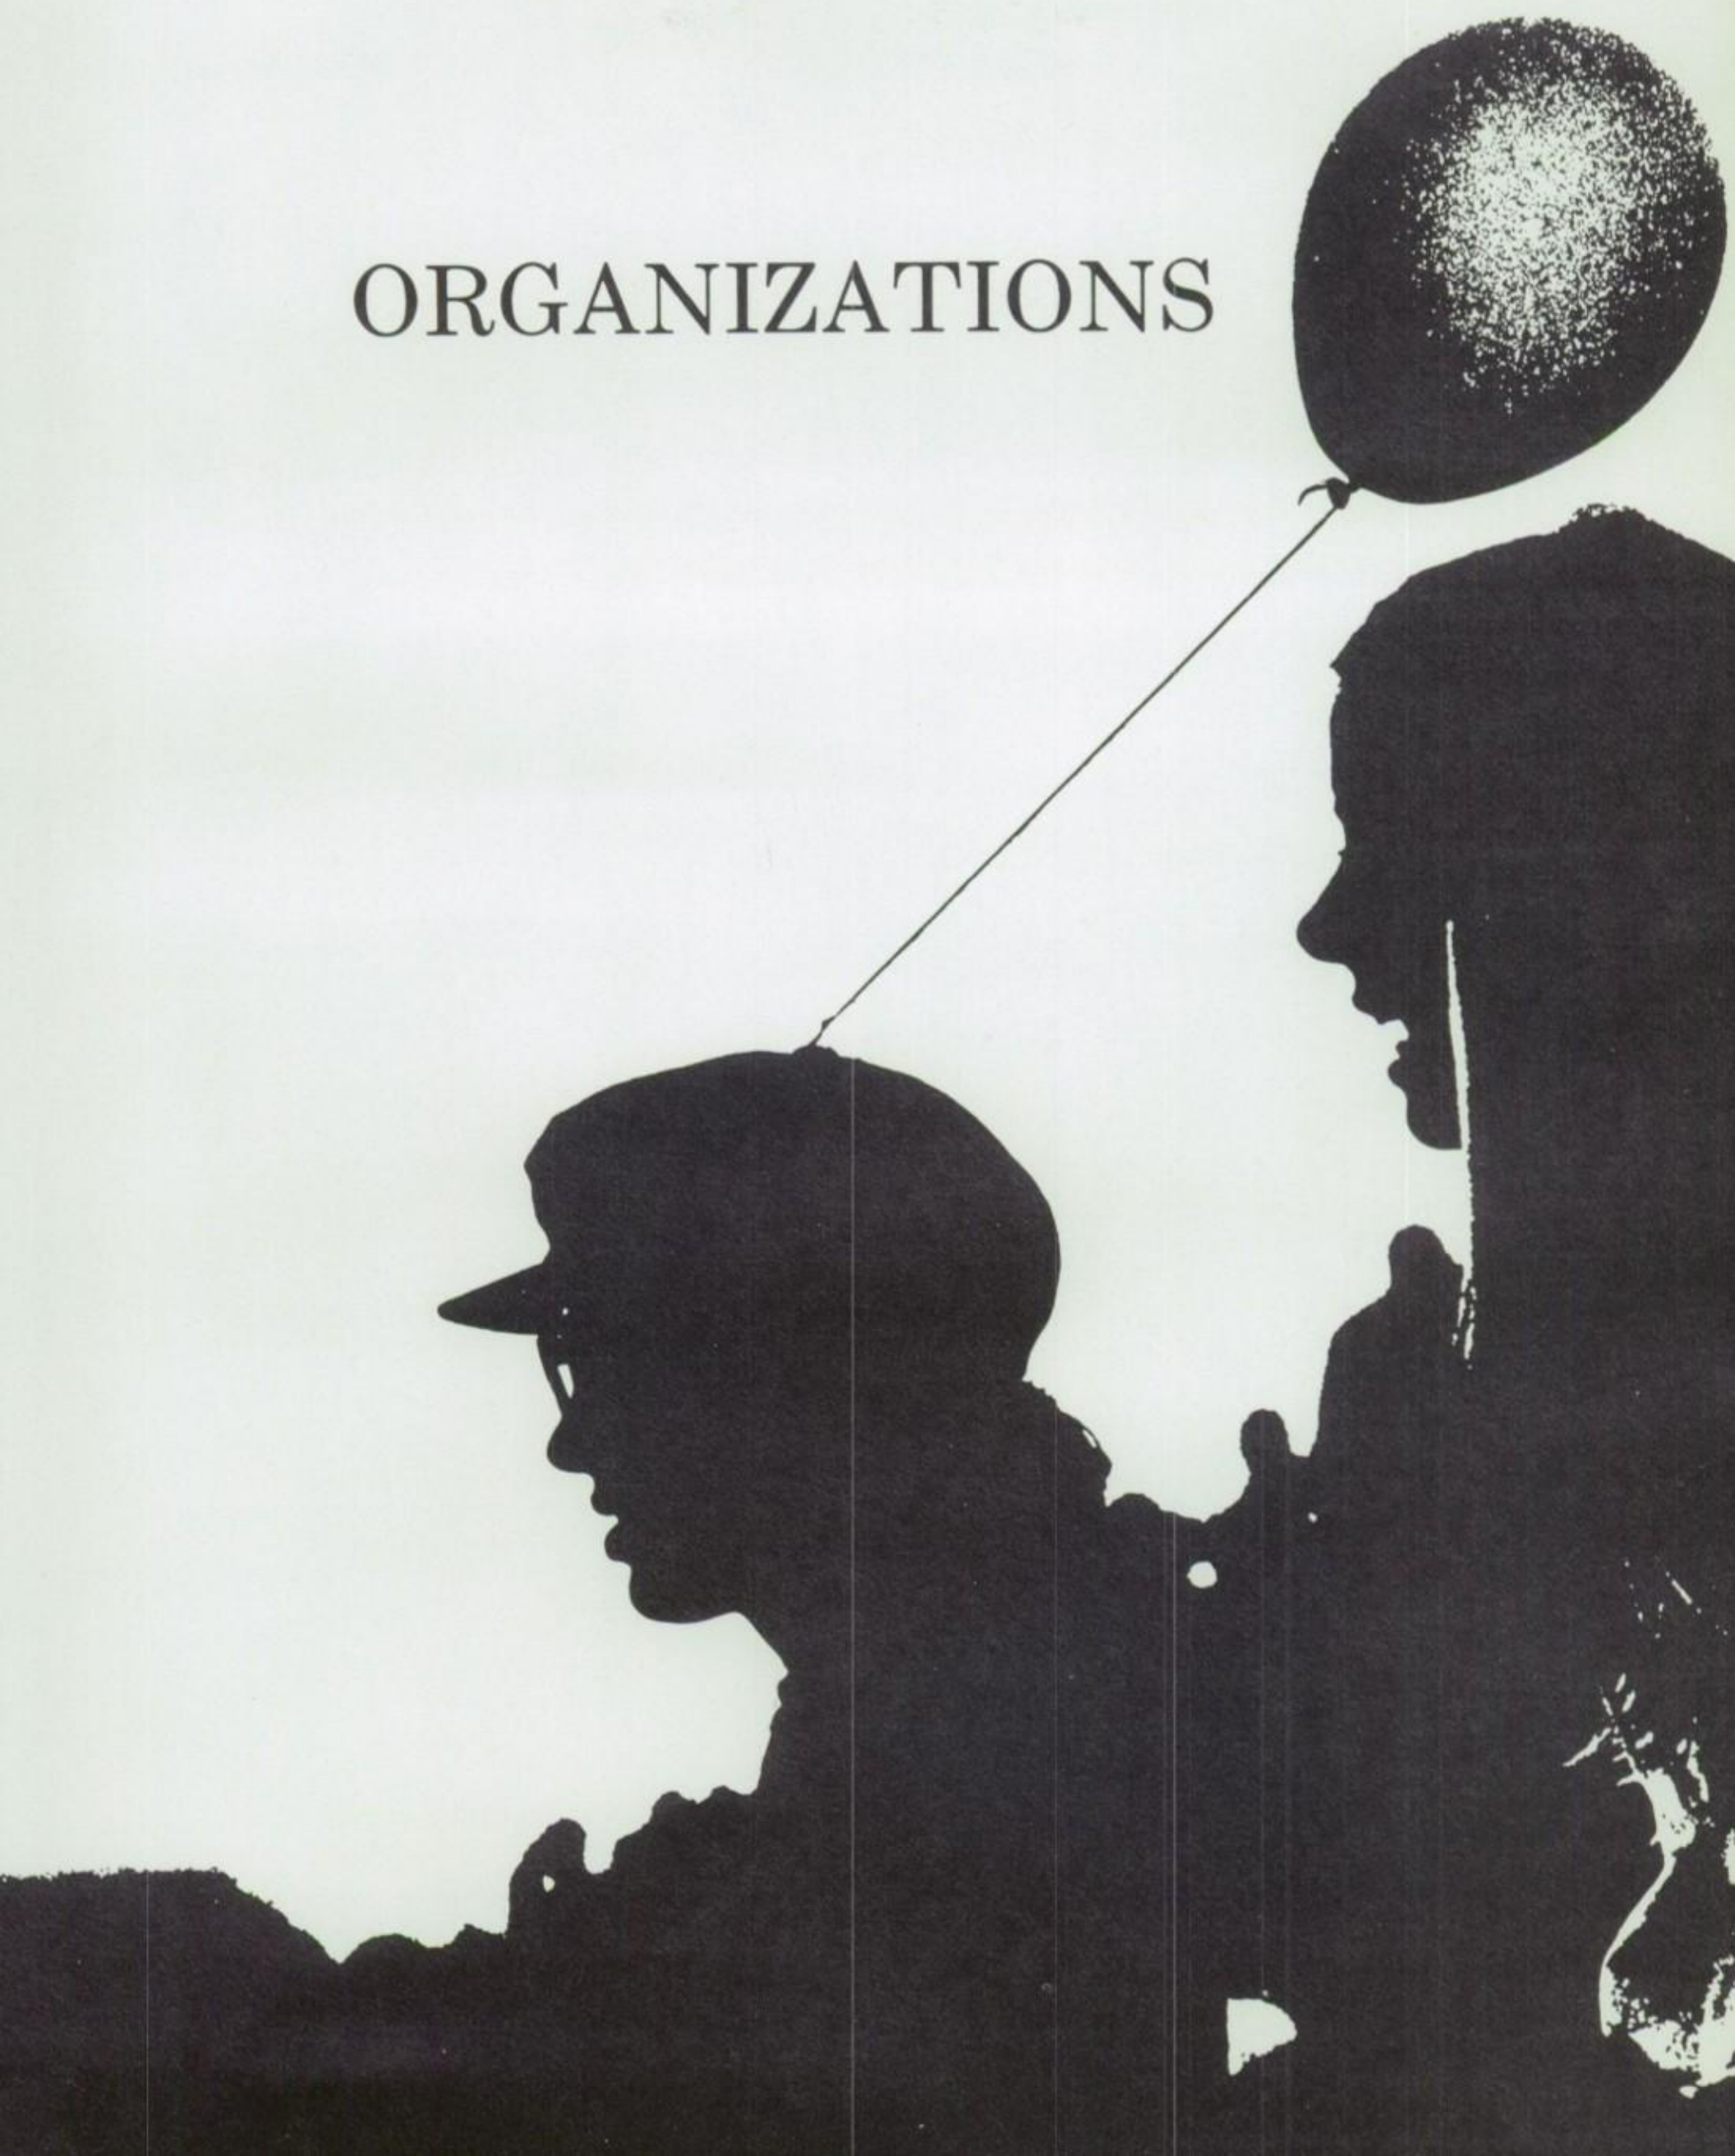

In times of trouble and crisis there is usually someone to turn to.

The '78 Comet Annual Staff would like to dedicate the yearbook to Mrs. Dolores Buschbom and Mrs. Dorothy Erickson who always manage to come up with the solution to the problem, whether it be a locker combination, keeping the books in balance for organizations, or typing letters or memos for the administration. They are dedicated workers, always ready to help out whenever necessary. We wish to express our appreciation to them for their outstanding and unending service to Cassville High.

The Annual Staff had a very busy and tough year. Under the new direction of Miss Goralski-the editors seemed to be very much on their toes. But with the help of everybody, they seemed to make the ends meet because they were able to make their deadlines on time. Some activities throughout the year were: when some students went up to a workshop in Madison. This helped the students get a better understanding of how the annual works. Throughout the year they sold M&M's had a turkey raffle and also sold cheese and sausage. All of these sales besides the ads and the annuals itself seemed to help keep the budget in balance. Now as the year ends, the editors find relief in knowing that they are almost through. But then again they would never do it if they didn't enjoy it so much.

Editors Jane Uppena and Kathy Noll received certificates from Josten's Ripon College yearbook workshop which they attended this summer. Awarding them the certificates are their advisor- Miss Goralski, and Principal-Mr. Olson.

There are many jobs and small tasks to be done which make every library an efficient part of the school. The library Club is part of this task force. They file cards, shelve books, make bulletin boards, and just try to help Mrs. Benish, their advisor. A very needed "thank-you" is given to the Library Club and Mrs. Benish for all the work they've done.

The Student Council, led by Mr. Schockemoehl, did a fine job of representing and promoting Cassville High and its student body this year. The effort they put forth for organizing and raising money for Homecoming Week, helped to make it a success. They also installed a monthly "Comet Award" for the boy and girl who excels in extracurricular activities during that month. Other council activities included tournaments in basketball and chess during the noon hours.

This year eleven members of the Sophomore and Junior classes, who displayed qualities of leadership, service, scholarship, and courage, were inducted into the Nelson Dewey Chapter of the National Honor Society. The group was later rewarded for their effort with a trip to Madison to tour the Capitol, the National Forest Laboratory and the University Art Museum.

Marching Band

The fall of 1977 was another successful marching season for the Comet marching band. The band marched in three competitive parades. At the Platteville Dairy Day Parade they received a second. They received firsts at the Lancaster Harvest Festival Parade and at the UW-Platteville Homecoming Parade. The band also marches in the Loras College, Potosi, and Cassville Homecoming Parades. The marching band performed during the halftime on Parent's Night. This year's theme was 'A Gridiron Portrait.' With this season's marching coming to an end, we look forward with high hopes and determination to 1978.

The 1977-78 school year proved to be very busy for the Cassville Concert Band. They had to perform in many concerts, some of them were: the play, "The Matchmaker," the Veterans Day program, the Christmas Concert Pops Concert and also pre contest Concert. The pep band also provided music for all of the home games and also for the Farm & Home Show. Also a small group of Brass players provided music for many Church Services throughout the year. The Band received a first at contests held at Potosi and as this year draws to a close they look with great anticipation for the coming year.

In the fall of 1977, the FFA participated in the Bloomington FFA judging contest. Winners were: 1st place Beef and 2nd place overall — the team consisting of Jim Moris, Ocean Morley, and Kevin Junk. Rick Hampton, Roger Vogt, and Dan Breuer made up another team which captured a 2nd place in Beef, also. Individual winners were: Kevin Junk — 1st overall and Rick Hampton — 3rd in swine.

In September and November the FFA held its annual fruit sales. Again it was another successful year, having sold over 5 tons of naval oranges and grapefruit from Texas. Dan Langkamp and Don Mergen combined for top sales, with Steve Adams second, and Bruce and Bill Hampton third. The FFA also raised 900 lbs. of popcorn which will be used for concessions at summer slo-pitch games.

Roy Mumm, President, and Rick Bausch, Treasurer, attended the National FFA Convention at Kansas City, Missouri from November 9th to the 11th. This year, two members applied for the State Farmer Degree and both received it. They were seniors Roy Mumm and Rick Junk. Phil Ames was accepted into the State FFA Band, while Dan Breuer was a 1st alternate and Jim Moris got honorable mention.

On April 6, 162 people were served at the FFA Banquet. Guest speakers were Francis Friar from the PCA and Slate Havens, a state officer. The following day, 18 members ventured to Madison for the State judging contest. Participants were Roy Mumm, John Mumm, Roger Vogt, Bruce Hampton, Warren White, Jerry Mumm, Rick Bausch, Kevin Junk, Rod Vogt, Dan Langkamp, Tom Bass, and Phil Ames.

The Drama Club had another very successful year. This years play was "The Matchmaker" which was based on the Broadway musical "Hello Dolly." It was a great success that took alot of hard work.

Besides the play, a few members took a one act play on in competition. It was the second act to "The Matchmaker" and with this they advanced to district competition where they received a "B" rating.

With the school year ending, many returning members will wait in anticipation for the coming year.

Where are we going?

Our tour guide!!

The Chorus put on many concerts this year. They were: a Halloween Concert for the grade school; a Veteran's Day Program giving honor to all the men and women who have served in our nation's service; a Christmas Concert in which we joined the Band to present this annual concert and finally a pre-contest concert where we sang our contest music. In January, Mary Moris, Jenny Tranchita, Julie Kuenster, Lorraine Brouillard, Mark Kann, Nikki Harris, Sandy Okey, and Amy Bernhardt were chosen to participate in the Blackhawk League All-Star Chorus. Nearly everyone in Chorus participated in Solo Ensemble Contest held in West Grant. Julie Kuenster and Jenny Tranchita took class A solos and advanced on to the state music contest which was held in Whitewater. Julie received a 2nd, and Jenny received a first. The Chorus Contest was held in Belmont where we received a 2nd in Class B. Julie Kuenster and Mark Kann are this year's National Choral Award recipients. The award was presented to them on April 30 at the Music Banquet. We ended our year by travelling to Guernsey, Ill., to Great America. We all had a nice time and we felt that this was an appropriate way to end our year.

The newspaper department is one of the newest additions to the curriculum at Cassville High. Headed by Mrs. Benish, they have come far in their accomplishments having published regular printed papers for approximately a year.

The staff has had no definite editor with several students carrying the responsibility. The entire group helps in the writing of articles and interviews while individuals sometimes organize pages by themselves.

Their philosophy is to emphasize the positive, focusing on interviews and the specialized departments of the school, along with its activities and events. Hoping to make it an all-schools paper, they have also featured activities from the St. Charles and Public schools. With continued cooperation, the future of our young staff looks bright.

Pep Band

Homecoming Week was kicked off with the pep band leading a rousing pep rally. Excitement grew with the thoughts of constructing a float, painting a window, and all the work that was sure to come. Tuesday through Friday were designated to some particular theme-the "1950's", Clash-and-hat, Dress-Up, and Green-and-White. Stunt Night was held Thursday, with the choosing of the royalty, bon-fire, and powder-puff game. The weather sure wasn't with us on Friday as it poured down rain. The parade went on as scheduled but it was a little damp. The game was no different, but the team proved they were in the spirit by beating South-western. Past Kings and Queens were honored at the dance with music provided by "Choyce" to end off Homecoming Week, 1977.

This year the CHS Drama Club presented the musical MATCHMAKER. It was a delightful comedy about Dolly Levi, played by Tish Zimmer, who tries to get herself married to Mr. Vandergelder, played by Kevin Kuenster. In the process she also manages to match up Ambrose Kemper, played by Joe Steil, to Ermengarde, played by Marsha McNett; not to mention Cornelius Hackel, played by Mark Kann, to Mrs. Molloy, played by Ann Hochhausen, and Barnaby Tucker, played by Darin Adrian, to Minnie Fay, played by Doris Vaassen.

Directors were Mrs. Audery Benish and Mrs. Connie Larson. Student Directors were Kathy Noll and Peggy Breuer.

The Cassville High Junior Prom came out to be a great success. Starting out the week, the Juniors were kept very busy during school and also at night to come up with a very beautiful gym. Colors of red, white and pink set off the stmosphere of the theme "YOU'RE IN MY HEART." The Prom court were as follows: Laurie Bausch-Brian Haas, Suzi Okey-Brian Harris, Connie Tesch-Warren White, Chris Ames-Mitch Pellock, Mary Houghton-Jamie Scholl, Robin Vogt-Rick Ackerman, and Prom King and Queen Bob Hudson and Kathy Noll. The Musical entertainment was provided by Moonrise. But the dance itself was not the end of the very exciting night, for many went to the various breakfast brunches that were provided by many of the Juniors.

The 1977 Summer Baseball team compiled a record of 5 wins and 9 losses by the end of the season. Their conference schedule included two games apiece with Belmont, Bloomington, Benton, Southwestern, and West Grant which resulted in 4 wins and 6 losses. They also split two games with Iowa Grant, and were defeated twice by Lancaster. On the tournament trail they defeated Bloomington in a regional game by a score of 13-10 before falling to Lancaster in the Regional finals 10-3.

Cross Country

Our cross country squad this year was full of ambition, desire and enthusiasm with inexperience and the lack of interest of the student body being the only drawbacks. The six sophomore boys competed in seven conference meets through the season, each consisting of a three mile course.

Something new was added to the Cross Country program this year, that being the participation of the first girl in that sport. Kay Okey took it upon herself to compete in some of the boys' meets while continuing as a member of the volleyball team.

Next year, we are hoping for the continued enthusiasm of these six boys and perhaps a growing interest throughout the school to keep the program going.

We cannot do everything at once —

The 1977 Season of the Cassville Football team was one that will long be remembered. Being soaked by the many rainy games didn't seem to stop this hard working and fast growing team as they came out in the end, with a record of 6 wins and 3 losses, and finally finishing fourth in the Blackhawk Conference. Starting out the season with returning men from the last year and the eagerness to win, they were able to show the many fans what football was all about, and with the help of Mr. Hilber, our new coach it made it all worth the while. Because of this great success Mr. Hilber became coach of the year. Highlights of the year were their many rainy games that came out very victorious. Homecoming for instance, winning with a score of 13-12, which was achieved at the very last minute of the game. Also capturing a win at Potosi's homecoming, for which they had never lost for about 13 years. Receiving All Conference titles were: Bob Hudson, Kyle Johnstone, John Mellon. Honorable Mention were: Tom Okey, Mitch Pellock, Tim Reynolds, Steve Hochhausen. A bright future is in store for all the returning men as the upcoming season awaits for them.

But we did! Football 1977

The Cassville Comets Volleyball team started the season by rebuilding their skills and ended up with a record of 5 wins and 5 losses for varsity, and 2 wins and 8 losses for the Junior Varsity.

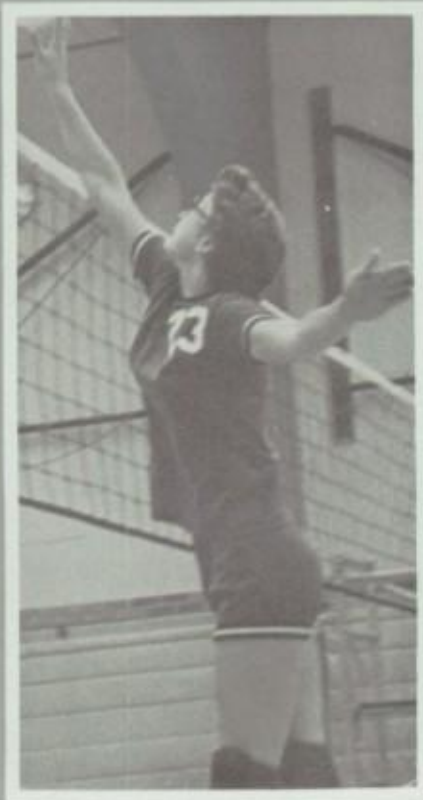

Throughout the season they tried for a new style of play of bumping setting and spiking. This proved to be successful because of the improved record.

Kay Okey achieved the All-Conference position, while Sue Langkamp, Sonya Schauff, Laurie Bausch, and Janet Kirschbaum received All-Conference honorable mention.

In tournament play Cassville beat Potosi at the West Grant subregionals and then advanced to regional play held at Riverdale High School. There they were defeated by Bloomington, Barneveld and Fennimore.

With 5 returning letterman, the Cassville Volleyball team plans on a exciting upcoming season.

The Comet's Junior Varsity Squad experienced a very successful season behind the instruction of Coach Uppena. Their final record was 16-2, and they can brag of an undefeated season on their home floor. Their only losses were to Benton and Southwestern and they ended the year tied with Southwestern for the best conference record of 14-2. The future looks hopeful for the Comet Squad.

Coach Wallenkamp and Coach Uppena

ups and downs

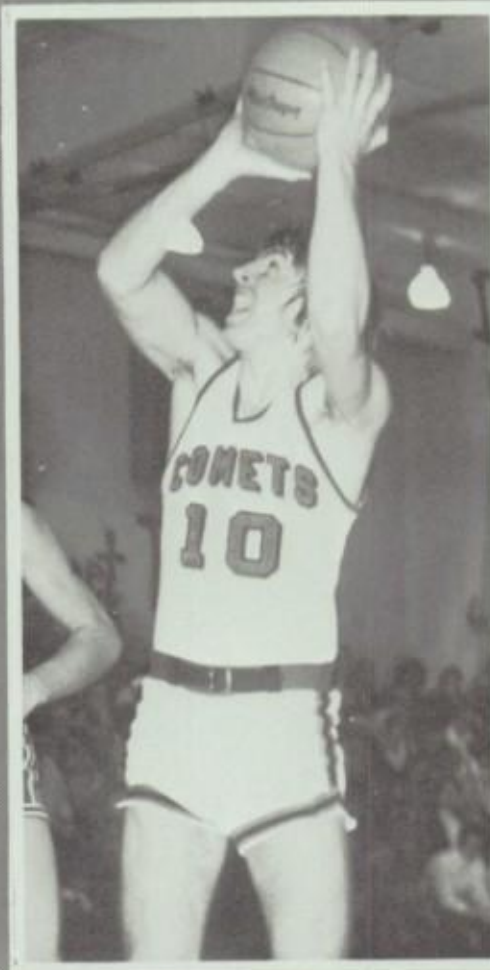

The Varsity squad was hindered through the season by the frequent changes in the coaching staff. Clem Wallenkamp began the season until he left because of illness. Mr. Upena then filled in until his replacement, Coach Kieser, was hired. The team managed to finish the season at a 3-13 mark, 3-11 on the Conference. Their tournament travel was ended in defeat to West Grant. Mitch Pellock and Brian Haas were named as honorable mention Conference choices.

The 1977-1978 girls basketball has to be labeled as a success with the varsity team earning a share of the league championship. The conference record was 14-2 with an over all record of 15-2. In team statistics Cassville was number one in both offensive and defensive averages. The high points of the season were the Varsity's revenge over Benton in the opening game and both teams' defeats over Bloomington on our final Parent's night games.

In the first tournament game Cassville beat West Grant 52-28, but then traveled to Fennimore and lost by a disappointing 36-35. All conference choices were Kay Okey 1st team, Sue Langkamp 2nd team, and Sonya Schauff honorable mention.

The fan support towards the end of the year was very good and everyone appreciated it.

The Junior Varsity team was quite inexperienced, but improved as the year went on and finished with a 8 and 9 record.

Mr. Doug McKenzie was in his first year as the junior varsity coach and Miss Carol Hanson held the position of varsity coach.

Kyle placed third in the Cassville-Lancaster Invitational.

On your mark, get set, go!!!

The Comet wrestlers started off the year with many new members. With not much experience behind them, the team seemed to draw back, for Kyle Johnstone only moved on to Regionals. Through the year the Cassville men hosted an invitational, with many schools attending. Kyle Johnstone moved on to receive a third place in his weight for that entire day. With much desire and skill, the Cassville wrestling squad looks forward to a better wrestling season in the years to come.

It's a toss up!!!

Boys and Girls

The 1978 Track teams proved a great success. Starting off the season with a great number-they went through the season breaking records and taking 1sts with many of the track meets. The girls were able to capture the Blackhawk Conference Championship when it was held at Bloomington, with the boys coming in second. Advancing on to Sectionals were: B. Ackerman-discus, Mile Relay Team consisting of: M. McNett, K. Okey, L. Wood, J. Kirschbaum. K. Okey with the mile and 880 and the 880 relay consisting of: M. McNett, J. Kirschbaum, L. Wood, C. Mergen. Advancing in the boys were: K. Johnstone-discus and shot, B. Hudson-440, and the mile relay team consisting of B. Hudson, B. Haas, B. Harris, R. Hampton. Also, W. White with pole vault. Advancing on to State are the girls mile relay team and B. Hudson with the 440. As the year ends we look with enthusiasm for the next track season with a possible new track field.

History

We, the class of 1978, began our High School years on August 21, 1974 with 38 girls and 31 boys a total of 69 students. During the course of the year we added two students, Brent and Bruce McAleese. Class officers were: Mike Gage, Pres.; I, Marsha McNett, Vice President; Janet Krogman, Secretary Treasurer; Deb Kartman and Tom Okey, Student Council Representatives. Our Homecoming Representative was Sherry Blum, her escort was Tom Okey. We took a second place on our float that year. On May 1, 1975 our hearts were saddened when Stacey Wood drowned. This then left our class with a count of 70 students, Class advisors for this year were Mr. Klauer, Mr. Blakely, Mrs. Breuer, and Miss Michels.

On August 27th 1975, we began our Sophomore year with 38 girls and 32 boys. Our class officers for this year were, Marsha McNett, Pres.; Kathy Wood, Vice Pres.; Joyce Kirschbaum, Secretary; Allen Bausch and Diane Ploessel, Student Council Representatives. Our Homecoming Rep. was Janet Krogman escorted by Mike Gage. We received a first place on our float. Our class advisors were Mr. Klauer, Mr. Blakely, and Miss Michels.

We began our Junior year with 70 students. During the course of the year Sue Bausch, Kyle Fishnick left our class. Karla Pitzen, Doug Metcalfe and Nancy Wentz transferred to different schools and Brian Kauffman went into the service. Class officers were: Brian Knox, Pres.; Doris Vaassen, Vice Pres.; Deb Kartman, Secretary; Kyle Johnstone and Marsha McNett were student Council representatives. Homecoming was a lucky time for our class this year for we took a 1st on our skit and window decoration and a second on our float. Our Homecoming Representative was Joyce Kirschbaum, escorted by Brad Vogt.

As spring rolled around quickly, so did the many preparations for the spring prom. On April 23, 1977, our Junior prom, with the theme, "Rainbow In Your Eyes" was held. Brian Knox and I, Marsha McNett reigned as King and Queen, Other members of the court were: Doris Vaassen and Kyle Johnstone, Brenda Blum and Tom Okey, Sonya Schauuff and Marty Mumm, Deb Kartman and Steve Hochhausen, Sherry Blum and Scott Wood, Kim Hochhausen and Rod Kirschbaum. Prom Was a great success and everyone had a good time.

Our Badger Boys were Mark Kann and Tim Reynolds. The Badger Girls were Kay Okey and Sue Langkamp. Don Russell was the recipient of the Spoon of Knowledge. Our class advisors were: Mr. Klauer, Mr. Blakely, Miss Benish and Miss Michels.

Theresa Eckstein Beesecker did not return to our Senior year so we began our final year at Cassville High School with a class of 61 students. During the course of our senior year Ron Walsh, Bill Fure, Sue Bausch, Diane Ploessel, Greg Nickel, Sue Giesen and Julita Breuer left our class. Our class officers were: Ann Hochhausen, Pres.; Linda Rod Vice Pres.; Brenda Retallick Secretary, Deb Kartman and Kyle Johnstone student council Representatives. Our Homecoming King and Queen were Kyle Johnstone and Kay Okey. Joyce Kirschbaum was our Senior rep. with Tom Okey as her escort. Tim Reynolds was Mr. Ugly. Our class advisors are Mr. Klauer, Mrs. Benish, Mr. Uppena, and Mr. Morely.

At the end of the 1st semester nine students applied and qualified for early graduation. They were: Mike Beesecker, Steve Hochhausen, Randy Kirschbaum, Janet Krogman, Brent and Bruce McAleese, Tom Okey, and Don Russell.

Our Valedictorian is Elaine Zittel and Salutatorian is Kathy Wood, our class flower is the white rose and we have chosen as our motto: "Tonight is the Beginning of our Tomorrow".

Tomorrow night May 26, 1978, we will be graduating and each of us will be going our separate ways. Although some of us may never meet again we will always remember and treasure the good times and the good friends we have had in our 4 years at Cassville High School.

Prophecy

Here it is 1988, and here we are, gathered aboard my newly acquired luxury liner, "The Poseidon II," for our ten year class reunion.

You must be wondering, how I could afford such a boat. Little did you know, when I invested in the Acme Electric Toothpick, that it would become a household work and gross me millions.

Sue Kirschbaum, is sitting over at the bar hustling all the guys. She is currently employed as a wine taster in Nappa Valley California needless to say she loves her work, the only bad part is getting out of bed every morning.

Posing for the photographers are four of our classmates who have made it big in Hollywood. Kim Reynolds, Brenda Blum and Sherry Blum along with Todd Whyte have taken roles in the new spin-off of Charlie's Angels called Todd's Tempting Trio. Bruce Hampton, also a star of the show, plays the ever bumbling Bosley. Ooops, there goes Bruce now, it seems he just slipped off the bow of the boat.

Sitting in the Acapuco Lounge entertaining guests is Marty Mumm. For the past decade he's been on a Norwegian joke kick. No one else seems to pay much attention, but as long as he's having fun, who cares.

In the audience are Brad Vogt and John Mellon. They seem to laugh all the time, but we don't think it's the jokes they're laughing at, it could just be the joke who's telling them. Rumor has it that John and Brad have applied to take over as professional laughers on the Muppet Show. They're still awaiting word.

Tim Reynolds and Dale Ellner are currently employed as doubles for Steve Austin in the Six Million Dollar Man. Tim makes the fast moves while Dale has always been an expert at slow motion.

Kevin Wood, Scott Wood, and Steve Hochhausen are members of the pit crew for Roy Mumm's Souped-up Coupe from the Cassville Loop, Indy 500 racer. Scott mans the cigarette lighter, Kevin tunes the radio and Steve adjusts the rear view mirror, while Roy frantically checks the oil, changes the tires, fills the tank and does engine repairs.

Sue Langkamp and Marsha McNett, founders of "Fly-Me" Airlines have become quite successful. Sue, who does the bookwork, is concerned with facts, while the figure department is handled by stewardess Marsha. She is currently on strike and is picketing around Sue's desk. It seems she gets more pinches than pay.

Roberta Bohringer, Elaine Richason and Vicky Martin, are over on the starboard side discussing the merits of their business venture. Besides being married and having two dozen kids between the three of them, they bought out the former "Pink Pony". Disliking the color pink, they changed the name of the restaurant to "A Pony of a Different Color".

As everyone's attention turns to a thundering crash, we see Mark Kann stumbling out of the remains of a spaceship. After having missed the ocean and splashing down on our boat, Mark explains that he has spent the last ten years in outer space looking for a companion (preferably of the opposite sex). After countless unsuccessful attempts, he's decided to try another galaxy.

Tom Okey owns a chain of world-wide super markets, with the catchy, but unforgettable name of "OKEY'S". A highlight of Tom's business is the "Instant Money" game. The only trouble is, after ten years, the number 123 still hasn't shown up.

Julie Kuenster is still waiting for her big break on Broadway. She's been waiting to get the part of Dorothy in The Wizard of Oz, but for the last ten years she's had to settle with the role of Toto. Better luck next year. Julie!

Sipping a little tiger milk are Ann Hochhausen and Sonya Schauff. They just flew in from the jungles of Nyrobe where Ann, better known as "Buganda" of the natives has set up her doctor's office where she treats anything from mumps to malaria. Keeping the fruit flies away during Ann's operations is her faithful nurse Sonya. She is frequently visited by her husband, an Ex-Air force major who is now a bush pilot.

Mary Moris, just out of hibernation, is sitting by herself in the ladies room. It seems she was told to find something to do for two years after graduation. Finding nothing, she went into hibernation, and overslept about 8 years. Luckily her alarm finally went off.

On the main deck are Don Russell, Rod Kirschbaum and John Dean. It seems Don owns a fleet of Blazers, once in good condition, they are now covered with cobwebs, rusting out and rat infested. Unfortunately, Don still hasn't gotten his license back and the rats have been making better use of the Blazers than he has. To remedy the situation Don has hired John and Rod, Two crack exterminators from Orkin Pest Control to wipe out the pesky little devils.

Kay Okey and Linda Rod chatting out on the poop deck are discussing their careers. Kay seems to enjoy being a permanent student. Since she can't seem to break any records in the 60 mile dash, but she pays them to let her keep trying. Linda, being a physical therapist, takes her job very seriously. It seems she works night and day.

Rhonda Stanfley, now a court stenographer, working under Brenda Oates, circuit judge of the Burton district, are in a heated discussion over their upcoming case, of legalizing women wrestling as a competitive sport at the high school level.

Teresa and Mike Beesecker are currently involved in cattle ranching in Wyoming. They just bought a part of Wyoming from Dorothy Caley, millionaire. She is now the proud owner of the "Caley Estate." Teresa and Mike tell us the secret to their success is, Janet Krogram, Elaine Zittel and Kathy Wood who are employed by the Beeseckers as cowpokes who keep the cattle entertained, and in good spirits.

Patiently awaiting death, Tim Worsham found time to make it out of his casket and come visit us among the living.

Over on the port side is Deb Kartman and Doris Vaassen, both successful hair stylists specializing in hair styles for the stars. They're currently in an argument over who gets to do Kojak's hair next week!

Gayle Groom and Cheryl Dexter, now surfing instructors in the Bahama Out Islands, finally decided to invest in swim suits since they found out snuggies went out of style years ago.

Brenda Retallick and Jane Sedbrook and their spouses share a castle in London. Both are bored and severely depressed by their lives of leisure. They've decided to go back to their exhilarating positions at Rapid Death and The Tafton House.

Allen Bausch and Brian Knox are in the auto business. Allen is a manufacturer of Edsels in Detroit, and sends his new models to be tested by Brian in the Muddy Hollow Salt Flats. Grappling over in the corner are a couple of classmates who have made it big in the wrestling world. Kyle Johnstone better known as "Rockface Johnstone" and Richard Junk the famous "Ravashing Rich" have set the sport of wrestling on it's ear.

Joyce Kirschbaum and Kim Hochhausen now saying their good-byes, set out for Boise, Idaho after graduation, they liked the idea of more boysies than girlsies.

So as we're nearing the harbor and the evening draws to a close, I would like to thank all that attended and wish them the best of luck in the next ten years.

In memorium

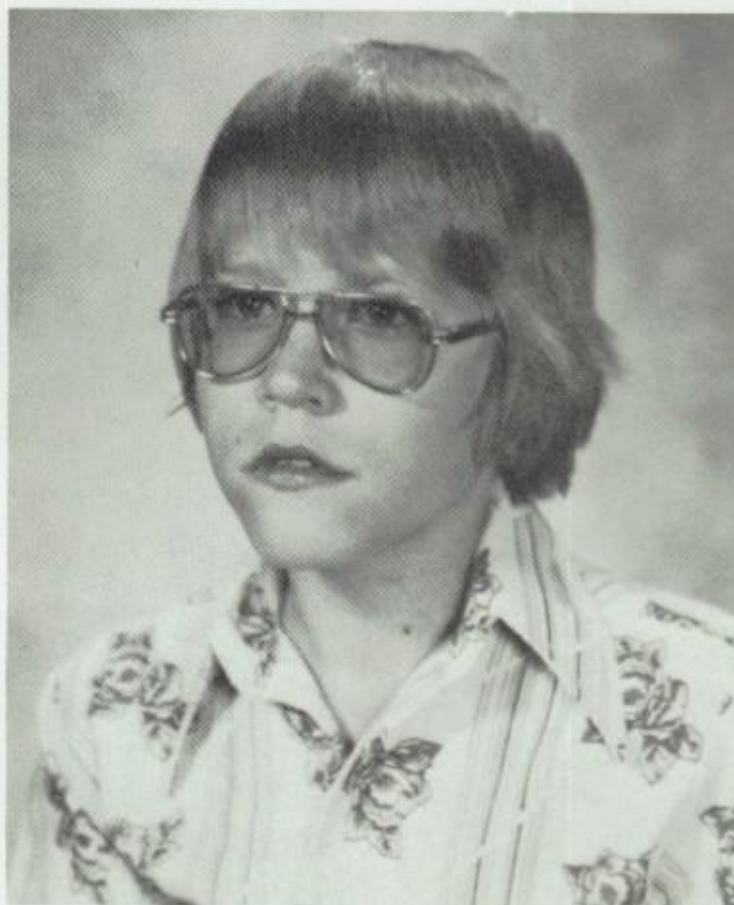

In Memory of Jeffrey John Pellock

You were our friend and classmate. Now the time is here, we have to part. It's so hard to say good-bye. The time passed quickly and little did we know that when you had to leave us, we just couldn't let go. We want you back, but it cannot be.

Our friendship will never end. We feel your presence with us and we will remember the good memories of our times together. You were a man, great in many ways. Your smile helped us through even the hardest days.

Our memory of you will glow as an eternal flame in our hearts. Thank you for being a gentle, kind friend. We love you so and it's hard to let go. The pain has ended for you now. Good-bye my friend, good-bye.

The end . . .

We can't return,
we can only look behind
from where we came . . .

The members of the Yearbook Staff would like to thank all of the people who gave their money and time in producing this yearbook. Also a special thanks to our local photographer and also Kevin and Scott.
